

Rettsyndrome.org

Ed Day

CONNECT. SHARE. GROW.

Intended for everyone wanting to connect with experts in the field of Rett syndrome especially families, caregivers, educators, clinicians, and therapists. Attendees will enjoy a rich and informative day of topics and discussion that will cover: research updates, medical and therapeutic interventions, Massachusetts specific programs & services, school and communication strategies.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS INCLUDE

- Michela Fagiolini, PhD
Researcher, Harvard and Boston Children's Hospital
- Jeannie Lee, PhD
HHMI Researcher, Harvard and Massachusetts General Hospital
- David Lieberman, MD, PhD
Medical Director Rett Clinic, Boston Children's Hospital
- Ann Bergin, MB, ScM, MRCP (UK)
Epilepsy Center, Boston Children's Hospital
- Lindsay Swanson, MS, CGC
Genetic Counselor, Rett Clinic, Boston Children's Hospital
- Suzanne Geerts, MS, RD, LD
Nutritionist, Univ. of Alabama Birmingham Rett Clinic
- Kate Ahern
Assistive Technology Specialist and Special Education Teacher
- Dale Gardner-Fox
Assistive Tech Specialist at Collaborative for Educational Services
- Paige Nues
Director Family Empowerment, Rettsyndrome.org

Program subject to change

Live Educational Opportunities

SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 2019
8:30am - 5:00pm

LOCATION

Boston Children's Hospital
1 Autumn Street, Boston MA 02215
(Auditorium A & B located in basement)
$8/day parking garage 1 block away

REGISTER

www.rettsyndrome.org/EdDayMA2019

FEE

$10/per person
Individuals with diagnosis are FREE

INCLUDES

Presentations, interactive panel discussion, continental breakfast and lunch, evening reception
No respite provided, but a quiet room will be available.

ADDITIONAL DETAILS

Hotel Information available online.

For questions or more information contact:

- Paige Nues at pnues@rettsyndrome.org
- Grace Bazin at BCH (617) 355.1495 or rettresearch@childrens.harvard.edu
- Ariane McMahan of RSAM at arianemcmahan0218@gmail.com

SOCIAL OPPORTUNITY

RSAM will host an onsite networking reception immediately following.

THIS DAY IS MADE POSSIBLE BY GENEROUS GRANTS FROM:

Special thanks to the Boston Children's Hospital and Rett Syndrome Association of Massachusetts.